Some Background:	It's still unclear if this issue ever were used postally. They are facts pro and contra about this theory. Some postally letters were reported buy never seen by the author. The stamps were always pre-cancelled by a stroke or a red cancel in a mostly rectangle or square shape. All sheets bear on the backside two big seals so all stamps have a quarter of it on backside. The translation for "BTP" is "East Turkestan Republic" in Russian.

Additional Information

Front and back of a full sheet with "01" variety at pos. 1 and at backside the two seals.
